

Website Privacy Statement

Wolford College respects the privacy of your personal information and does not, under any circumstances, rent or sell personal information submitted by visitors or students to our site to any outside third party. Personal information that you submit to this website will be used only for the purpose for which it was asked.

This site collects traffic and visitor information using Google web analytics tools. Information obtained through these tools may be used internally to support student services.

Wolford College is committed to upholding our students' and visitors' right to privacy. Should you have any questions, we encourage you to contact us by email at helpdesk@wolford.edu.